AMERICAN DANCE FESTIVAL CALL FOR ENTRIES
14th Annual Dancing for the Camera:
International Festival of Film and Video Dance—June 26-28, 2009

The American Dance Festival calls for innovators to step forward with submissions for the 14th annual Dancing for the Camera: International Festival of Film and Video Dance. Directed by dance filmmaker and curator, Douglas Rosenberg, the 2009 Dancing for the Camera will take place June 26-28. Dancing for the Camera screenings will be free and open to the public on the campus of Duke University.

Showcasing the best of fusions between cinematographic skill and choreographic vision, Dancing for the Camera has screened to international audiences more than 250 dance films by filmmakers from over 20 countries. Since 1995, Dancing for the Camera continues to distinguish itself from the nation's many film festivals with its specifically dance-centered agenda. Seeking high artistic quality, a panel will adjudicate all entries. Selected works will screen at the festival. Certificates of Distinction will be awarded to works of exceptional merit.

Entries must be submitted in one of the following categories:

- *Choreography for the Camera—original work made specifically for video or film or re-staged for the camera.
- *Documentaries—productions that include interviews or other educational elements in addition to choreography.
- *Experimental and Digital Technologies—work that extends the boundaries of dance and can exist only in video, film, or new technologies.
- *Student Work—submissions produced while the filmmakers were students or by current students.

The early deadline for film/video submissions is March 24, 2009, by 6pm with an entry fee of $30. All submissions must meet the final deadline of April 24, 2009, by 6pm. The entry fee for late submissions is $40.
