The 2011 ADF, entitled Something New, Something Treasured will celebrate the best in modern dance, both past and present, with 8 World Premieres, 6 ADF Commissions, 5 US Premieres, 5 Reconstructions, and 5 ADF Company Debuts. The season will feature works that honor the timeless classics of modern dance, while exploring the most innovative works that are shaping the field nationally and internationally with performances by renowned companies and choreographers including the Paul Taylor Dance Company, Pilobolus, Martha Clarke, Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Eiko & Koma, Anne Teresa De Keersmaker's Rosas, and Shen Wei Dance Arts. For detailed information about the 2011 Festival performing companies, the ADF School, community programs, and ticketing, please visit www.americandancefestival.org.

About ADF:

Founded in 1934 in Bennington, Vermont, the ADF remains an international magnet for choreographers, dancers, teachers, students, critics, musicians, and scholars to learn and create in a supportive environment. The ADF's wide range of programs includes performances, artist services, humanities projects, publications, community outreach, educational programs and classes, archives, media projects, and national and international projects. The ADF has been presenting the best in modern dance for over 77 years.
